

First Congregational UCC-Madison
Intergenerational Community Art Project

For I am about to do a new thing!

– Isaiah 43:19

Amity Flogel, Linda Hancock, and Jeff Rabe are teaming up to lead this Lenten art project. Nearly 30 yards of canvas are waiting for your inspiration. All ages and skill levels are invited to leave their mark through free-form and abstract painting. Individuals and groups are all welcome! Transformation painting will be in the Dining Room.

The project kicks off on Sunday, March 9, and runs through Wednesday, April 2.

Public painting hours:

Sunday's from 11 am – 1 pm

Tuesdays from 6 – 8 pm

Wednesdays from 6 – 8 pm (quiet time)

Families, groups, and artistic individuals who want to be a part of a community project. Wednesday evenings are reserved for quiet, contemplative, painting, while Tuesday evening sessions are open for more joyous expression.

No sign up required, just come paint!

Special scheduled times can also be set up by contacting Jeff Rabe.

Painting supplies are provided, all you have to bring is inspiration!

The finished work will be unveiled during the First Cong children and youth-led Worship service on Sunday, May 4. The painting process will be recorded for use in the unveiling.
